Becky Ruiz

Director of Supportive Housing Programs

Ms. Ruiz has been with JFS since 2010, working continuously in HUD-funded programs. Previously, she worked for Los Angeles County as a housing specialist and case manager in HUD-funded programs. Collectively, Ms. Ruiz has over 14 years of experience in HUD-funded programs. Ms. Ruiz is responsible for the management of all JFS programs located in Riverside County including PSH projects, outreach programs, and IEHP Community Supports program.

Erica Gonzalez

Program Manager

Ms. Gonzalez has been working in JFS's HUD-funded programs since March 2011. Prior to working with JFS, she worked for 8 years with Episcopal Community Services homeless programs. Ms. Gonzalez is responsible for all case management related issues and assists with case management as needed. Ms. Gonzalez is currently the JFS HMIS Administrator for Riverside County programs.

Since 1918, Jewish Family Service of San Diego (JFS) has been a trusted community resource for individuals and families working to build better lives. JFS is a person-centered, impact-driven organization that partners with people of all backgrounds to build stable and dignified lives. Creating a stronger and healthier community where everyone can thrive. JFS began operating in the Coachella Valley in 2006 managing a 14-unit homeless shelter for families. Since that time JFS has expanded to operation a transitional housing project, outreach programs, and Permanent Supportive Housing Projects. To learn more visit www.jfssd.org.
