Riverside County Department of Public Social Services – Children Service’s Division Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC) Program

Krystal Elliot

Administrative Services Analyst

Krystal received her bachelors degree in Political Science from Hartwick College in Oneonta, New York. Her experience of 17 years working in Social Services includes: Adult Protective Services, Self-Sufficiency programs, and most recently, seven years as an Analyst for the CSEC Program for the DPSS Children Service’s Division.

Krystal strongly believes in the importance of creating and maintaining community involvement and partnerships. She participates in State led workgroups, Hope Collaborative, and the Riverside County Anti-Human Task Force (RCAHT). She is a key contributor to the CSEC Steering Committee. Krystal also assists with the development and coordination of Human Trafficking prevention, and intervention efforts for Riverside County.

Presentation Description:

This presentation will provide community partners the knowledge and understanding of what Commercially Sexually Exploited Children (CSEC) is and the connection it has with homeless and runaway youth. Community partners will learn about the various factors that push/pull a youth to runaway that can potentially lead to human trafficking. Additional resources/research will be made available to attendees.
